

Commercial Property Services

270 years of commercial property solutions

We provide a professional service for your commercial property acquisition or disposal work irrespective of the transaction size.

Our commercial property solicitors possess a high level of expertise which spans a range of commercial property specialisms, so whether you need conveyancing advice for a commercial property sale/purchase, a commercial lease or are looking to develop land, we can offer you cost-effective and practical solutions.

We really have been grateful to have you, and your expertise and support, on our side!

Grateful Client

Getting access to the right legal advice

We aim to provide a professional and personal service that you can trust. We have experience of commercial business transfers for businesses of all sizes ranging from smaller transactions to multi million pound business acquisitions. All clients are assigned their own personal property solicitor who will focus on your business objectives, and help to keep your business plans on track. Our experienced legal experts will guide you and explain exactly what's happening at every stage of the process.
