Expertise

Personal Injury

Heather has over 15 years experience of dealing with personal injury claims. She has a broad range of experience in dealing with low value and high value claims including complex injuries and multiple defendants. Heather also has experience with dealing with Criminal Injury Compensation Claims and claims against drivers who are insured overseas.

She is sympathetic and friendly and offers support and advice throughout the claims process from initial enquiry through to settlement. She is happy to go the extra mile and will always endeavour to be available to her clients either by telephone or in person.

Heather always puts clients first and considers all of their needs including treatment and the need for aids and equipment. Heather understands that it is not just about the money for some clients and ensures that all of her clients needs are met
