Madeline Dykes qualified as a Solicitor in 2019, having started her training in the area of Private Client and later specialising in Property with a local firm.

Madeline joined Coodes in December 2020 in our Commercial Property department and has a particular interest in Agricultural Law.

Expertise

Commercial property

Madeline undertakes general commercial property work, comprising the sale and purchase of freehold and leasehold property, along with landlord and tenant work including lease reports.

Madeline also specialises in rural and agricultural property work, including the sale and purchase of bare land along with farm business tenancies.

Notable Commercial property cases

Purchase of Freehold Property

Purchase of freehold unregistered Grade II listed property with private drainage and unadopted access requiring further investigation. Negotiation to the draft Contract was necessary in order to remove the transfer of environmental liability from the Seller to our Buyer client.

Auction Sale

Sale of plot of land at auction to include taking instructions and preparing the auction pack, obtaining searches and drafting the Transfer for approval by our client and their lender to consent to the granting of a right of way.
